

Who's taking the lead?

Our Industry, Our Sites, Our People

Workplace Respect

Committee

Marla McCready (Co-chair)
Merit Contractors Association

Lynne Harder (Co-chair)
Construction Labour Relations

Rob Cleveland
Christian Labour Association of Canada

Shandra Linder
Synchrude Canada Ltd.

Kathy Camina
KBR Canada

Lindsay Osmond
Jardeg Construction Services Ltd.

Michelle Devlin
Creating People Power

Shayantani Sarkar
Bird Construction Company

Dale Hildebrandt
Ledcor Industries Inc.

Cailín Mills
Alberta Employment and Immigration

Roland LaBossiere
Suncor Inc.

Our Industry, Our Sites, Our People

Who's taking the lead?

RESPECT

“The willingness to show consideration for the rights or feelings of others; to treat them courteously, inclusively and safely.”

How many acts of disrespectful conduct have you been witness to or experienced in the past month in your workplace?

- None
- Just a few
- Quite a few
- It's an every day occurrence!

In the past month, are you aware of any of your behavior(s) that were disrespectful?

- None – “I am the most respectful person in the world”
- Rarely – “But I always apologize when I realize what I have done”
- Often – “It is the only way to get things done in my organization”
- Every Day – “Cannot keep up with ‘politically correct’ behaviour”

How would a workplace respect program benefit your work environment?

- No Value – “my organization is great”
- Low Value – “some people could use a tune up”
- Moderate Value – “it would definitely benefit my workplace”
- High Value – “Very toxic, we need an intervention”

Workplace Respect

Why are you here?

Our Industry, Our Sites, Our People

Who's responsibility is it in the Industry to ENSURE there is a
Respectful work environment?
Why?

What are the challenges/opportunities to eliminate disrespectful behaviour in our Industry?

How can we help Industry succeed?

Workplace Respect

Interested? Please join us....

Lynne Harder lynne@clra.org

Marla McCready mmccready@meritalberta.com

Our Industry, Our Sites, Our People