

Safety Best Practices

Safety Committee members work collaboratively to improve overall safety culture and performance in the Construction Industry through:

Identifying, developing and supporting implementation of leading edge industry safety philosophies, practices and tools that contribute to improved and improving cultural and safety performance for Owners, Contractors and Labour groups

Guiding Principles:

Work collaboratively with owner companies, contractor companies, labour providers, educational institutions, government and other industrial associations

Openly share information to maximize lessons learned from incidents and successes